RELEASE AND QUIT-CLAIM OF REMAINDER-INTEREST.

Whereas, my grand-mother, Mary Elizabeth Shreve, by her last will and testament left her entire estate to her own immediate children for life with remainder in fee to her grand-children;

Whereas, my father, Arthur B. Shreve, is the only surviving son or daughter of my said grand-mother and in constructive possession of the outstanding life-estate which must determine before my remainder-interest can vest or be realized by me; and,

Whereas, in consideration of the natural love and affection which I bear to my said father, it is my desire to transfer and quit-claim to him my said remainder-interest so that he may enjoy or dispose of same as fully and completely as if it had been left to him in fee originally. I do hereby transfer, convey, release and quit-claim to my said father, Arthur B. Shreve, in fee-simple forever any and all interest which I may have or may be entitled to claim in my said grand-mother's estate, so that my said father's interest therein may be and become absolute and unconditional and he may dispose of and give a clear title to same entirely freed and released from any remainder-interest whatsoever in me or in my heirs.

In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this 19 day of August, A.D. 1916. County of New York City of New York
