

left side of the Hall which is in the center of the house. I could not see because the room was too dark. The window shutters were closed windows fasten down, the house being unoccupied, But I know there was some furniture in that room. I went into the room on the right side of the hall and also in the room upstairs. The house is now furnished with plain furniture carpet bed coving &c, all of which is of a plain character. Being second hand I do not suppose it would sell for its real value but in my opinion is worth from $150. to $200.00 To the Gen. Tnt. by the Examiner.

Ans. That is all I think of now.
