AND your trustees further report that the property referred to in these proceedings, consists of two large tracts of land containing in the aggregate nearly five hundred acres ;that it is not probable that they could secure a purchaser for the said property in its entirety;and that your trustees could not anticipate the wishes of purchasers so as to divide said property in advance;and that for the said reasons,it seems desirable to accept satisfactory offers,at private sale,for such portions of the sai property,as purchasers may desire to acquire,making the sales subject to the ratification of this Court.

THE terms of the said sale are as follows;cash on the ratification of the sale by this Honorable Court.
