

real estate has been sold by your Petitioners in the above entitled cause and said sales are now ready for ratification by your Honorable Court and exceptions having been filed to the ratification of said sales by the purchaser on the ground that no notice having been given to creditors, thereby creating a cloud on the purchaser's title to said real estate.

Wherefore it becomes necessary for Petitioners to publish the notice required by the laws of Maryland to creditors of said decedent in order to clear the title to said real estate.

TO THE END THEREFORE,

1st, That your Honorable Court may pass an Order directing Petitioners to publish a notice to the creditors of Roy Edmonston deceased, as required by the laws of Maryland.

2nd. And for such other and further relief as the nature of the case may require.
