ANSWER OF ISABELLE K. DANIEL

Theresa K. Ross and Charles W. Ross, III

v.

Richard P. Ross,
Blanche S. Ross, his wife,
George J. Ross,
Helen S. Ross, his wife,
Cornelia R. McSherry and
Isabel Kunkle Daniell

No. 11,673 Equity.
In the Circuit Court
For Frederick County,
In Equity.

-----O-----

The answer of Isabelle Kunkle Daniell to the Bill of Complaint, filed against her in this cause. Answering the Bill of Complaint filed against her in this cause your respondent says; 1st. That she admits that Charles W. Ross Jr, late a resident of Frederick County, Maryland, departed this life seized and possessed of the lots of ground and premises as set forth in the first paragraph of said Bill of Complaint, and that the said Charles W. Ross, Jr., by his last Will and Testament, duly probated, admitted to record and recorded, disposed of the said lots of ground and premises as is set forth in the second paragraph of said Bill of Complaint, and that she admits that Theresa Kinkle Ross, one of the complainants, is still the widow of Charles W. Ross, Jr., and that the said Charles Worthington Ross, III, the other of the complainants, is the son of Charles W. Ross, Jr. and is now unmarried and twenty-five years of age. And your respondent further admits that if the estates of the said Theresa K. Ross and Charles Worthington Ross, III, should terminate by the death of both, the heirs at law of the said Charles Worthington Ross, III, would be your respondent, Isabel Kunkle Daniell, and Richard P. Ross, George J. Ross, and Cornelia R. McSherry, and that Blanche S. Ross is the wife of Richard P. Ross, and Helen S. Ross is the wife of George J. Ross. And that at the termination of the estate of the said Charles Worthington Ross, III the said Theresa K. Ross, the mother of the said Charles Worthington Ross III, would be his only heir at law.
