

Cross-examination by Mr. Buckey.

When do you think this property could be sold?

I could not say, I don't know.

What do you think it would bring in such time in the future as you say it might be sold?

As far as property is concerned I couldn't tell you.

You don't know whether it would be worth more three or five years from now?

It depends on the country.

The opinion that the property cannot be sold now is merely speculative?

Excepted to.

No, it isn't.

You don't know whether it can be sold or not?

I have never tried to sell it, and I could not say.

You couldn't tell that unless an effort would be made to sell it?

No.

You can't say whether it will inhanche in value or whether it will decrease?

I can't say.

You can't tell whether it will depreciate in the next year, or the next year, or whether it will be possible to sell it if held any longer at the price that now might be obtainable?

I don't know.

As to repairs, you haven't been in this property for two years?

No, I haven't.

You left this property about two years ago?

I did.

How long had this paper been in the house?

About a year or a year and a half.

The life of the paper depends upon its quality, and use in the house?

Yes sir.

Where you have tenants in the house with children it doesn't last as long as where you have two or three people?

It all depends on the children.

You said in your testimony in chief that what furniture you took away was furniture that you had since you were married?

It was.

You didn't buy any furniture out of this $30.00 a month board?

I bought things that was necessary to have in a home, as dishes and silver, and linens, and everything that would make a home.

If you bought this silver with the profit you made off this man's board, why didn't you take those things along?

Excepted to.

I took part of it, what belonged to me. My husband said he gave it to me.

Did your husband contribute towards the support of the house?

He did.

While you were keeping this boarder?

He did.

Can you name what you bought independent yourself out of any profits you had?

I was trying to help.

Can you mention any specific piece of furniture that you bought out of your own profits?

My end tables, my front room table, my front room chairs, and as well as I can remember, a bed room suite.
