

Q None of them? None of the rest of them?

A None of that family.

Q Did you visit Lulu Heffner often?

A Yes.

Q She died in January, didn't she?

A Yes.

Q How long before that did you visit her?

A Well I was in there just before Christmas.

Q How long before Christmas?

A Oh just about a week.

Q You weren't there since then?

A Not before she died.

Q Mrs. Thrasher, did she say she usually got Christmas presents from Janie, or --

A Yes, she used to get one every year.

Q She didn't say she got one this last year?

A Yes, she said she got one from her.

Q You mean it came before Christmas?

A Yes, she had done sent it.

Q She has done sent one to her aunt?

A Yes, and I think she fot one from her.

Q Didn't show it to you?

A No, don't remember seeing it.

Q Did she say what it was?

A I forget.

Q Are you sure she said she got one this year?

A Yes, I am pretty sure. I know they exchanged presents every year.

Q I want to be sure she said she got one this year?

A Yes.

Q And she said that at least a week before Christmas?

A Yes, I was in there and she said she had got a present from her.

Q You know how old Miss Janie Rice would be, now?

A I suppose she is eighty. I don't know just exactly, but I know she is eighty. I don't know whether she is over that or not.

Q You know whether Perry Rice was married more than once or not?

A I don't know. I don't think so.

Q Did you ever hear from Janie Rice? Ever write to her and correspond with her?

A No, she used to visit our house every time she cam in, excepting the last time.

Q How long has she been out west in Indiana?

A Well she went out there I think soon after Mr. Heffner married the second time.

Q Married your sister?

A Yes, and Janie stayed there.with Mr. Heffner to take care of the child.

MRS. GEORGE DARNER, a witness of lawful age, produced on the part of the exceptants, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By. Mr. Storm:

Q Mrs. Darner, where do you live?

A Jefferson.

Q Do you know Janie Rice?

A Yes, sir.

Q What is her full name?
