

excess of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00). Therefore, said corporation's indebtedness is approximately more than Nineteen Thousand Dollars ($19,000.00), and its assets will not amount to more than Nine Thousand Dollars ($9,000.00). Hence said corporation is hopelessly insolvent.

8- That there is no hope of recouping any of the above loss by a continuance of the business of said corporation, as it is losing money every week.

9- That your Complainant, as well as other creditors of said corporation, will suffer much loss by delay in disposing of the corporation's assets and winding up the affairs of said corporation.

WHEREFORE, in view of the facts aforesaid, your Complainant believes, avers and charges that the defendant corporation is hopelessly insolvent, and that the only way to preserve its assets for the benefit of its creditors is by the appointment of a Receiver or Receivers by this Court, with proper authority to effect a sale of the property and assets of the said corporation and distribute the proceeds of the same under the supervision of this Court unto the creditors entitled thereto, and prays that:

(1) That a Receiver or Receivers may be appointed to take possession of, hold, control and manage the property and assets belonging to the defendant corporation, within the jurisdiction of this Court, and, for that purpose, to appoint all necessary agents and attorneys and employees that may be necessary to collect any outstanding accounts and bills receivable, and to prosecute all suits in which the defendant may have an interest.

(2) That the said Receiver or Receivers may be authorized and directed under the order of this Court to effect a sale of the property and assets of said corporation and distribute the proceeds of the same under the supervision of the Court unto the creditors entitled thereto, and to borrow money necessary for that purpose.

(3) That all persons may be enjoined from interfering in any way with the possession and operation of said property and assets by said Receiver or Receivers.

(4) That your Complainant may have such other and further order or decree as may be requisite and necessary in the premises.

(5) That said corporation may be dissolved.

To which end your Complainant prays that process may be issued to the Defendant to answer the exigencies of this Bill of Complaint.

And as in duty bound, etc.
