

years age, leaving a widow who is now dead, and the following children: Frank Hightman, whose wife's name is Minnie, Anne Shirley, whose husband's name is Lewis Shirley, George Hightman, whose wife's name is also Minnie, Cecil D. Hightman, and also his son Harry C. Hightman, who died the spring of this year intestate, leaving a widow, Cora Hightman and a granddaughter, Miriam House. Miriam is under 18 years of age and lives with her father, Russell House, near Broad Run. These are all the parties interested in this farm. Cecil Hightman's share was sold out by the sheriff several years ago and bought in by the remaining children. All these parties are adults except Miriam House. This tract of land contains more than 400 acres and has been used as two farms by taking several fields off of the larger farm and adding them to the smaller farm. One farm now contains about 120 acres and the other about 311 acres. I believe the smaller farm, that is the one containing about 120 acres is worth about $5500.00 and the larger tract is worth about $12,500.00. This acreage cannot be divided among the parties without loss and injury and it would be to the best interest that the same be sold. To the general interrogatory nothing further.

George E. Hightman, a witness of lawful age, after having been duly sworn, deposes and says: my name is George E. Hightman and I am one of the Complainants in this cause. In order to sell this farm advantageous it would be advisable to have it surveyed and sell the one farm containing 120 acres about, and the other containing 311 acres, There are two complete sets of buildings on these tracts and they are so situated that this division of the farm would be such as to bring a better price. My father, Thomas Hightman died intestate and my brother, Harry C. Hightman, who died in April of this year also died intestate, leaving a widow, Cora E. Hightman and no children, but a granddaughter, Miriam House, who is a daughter of Harry's deceased daughter, Ruth House, She is now living with her Father, Russell House near Broad Run and is about 17 years of age. This property cannot be divided among the parties interested and as some of them want their money the only thing to do is to sell it a public sale. To the general interrogatory nothing further.
