"Exhibit Will"

Frederick, Md.

Feb. 7th/23

This is the last will and Testament of James K. P. Wolfe

It is my desire that parlor suit owned by my wife, now in the parlor shall become the property of my daughter Caroline, wife of Luther E. Dutrow.

The black and white pony (Billy) with trap and harness I desire to leave to my grandson James Harry Dutrow.

To my son, Thomas H. Wolfe, I leave all the furniture in his bedroom, which includes six flowered chairs, rocking chairs to match, bureau, wash stand, bed and bedding and bed clothing. also and old chest which was my fathers'. Furthermore Thomas H. Wolfe shall have the use of my farm for one year after my death and shall have all proceeds from the place for that year. Furthermore he shall have the use of all livestock for one year, with the property.

At the expiration of one year after my death, I desire that all property not distributed above and now owned by me, shall be sold either privately or by public sale at the discretion of the executors. From such sale five equal shares shall be distributed, one each to Chas. J. Wolfe; Geo. D. Wolfe; Thomas H. Wolfe; Caroline Dutrow; and fifth share to my deceased daughters' child Pauline Tabler.

I appoint as my executors my two sons, Charles J. Wolfe and Thomas H. Wolfe, giving bond of $2000.00 each.

This shall make any previous will void.
