

Do you know the parties to this suit?

Yes, While I have not met all of the m, the most of them I know personally and I know the history of the balance of the family very well.

Did you know Alice V. Smith in her lifetime?

Yes, I knew her for a number of years.

When did she die?

February 1933.

Did she have any real estate at the time of her death?

Yes. She had a small property near LeGore. I heard the testimony of William J. Smith describing the title to this property and I think the Exhibits Nos. 1 and 2 are correctly describe the real estate of which she died seized and possessed.

Do you know whether or not she left a Will when she died?

She did not to the best of my knowledge.

State who were her heirs and next of kin?

I heard the testimony of the Complainant, William J. Smith, and I think he gave the names of all the next of kin and heirs at law correctly to the best of my knowledge and belief.

In your opinion is the property capable of division among the parties?

No. That would be impossible.

What in your opinion is the value of the property?

About $150.00
