

repair, and the out buildings are practically falling down, from lack of repair. It is worth probably Eighty Hundred Dollafs, in my opinion. I have heard the testimony of my brother, Robert, in which he stated who the heirs-at-law of Jacob Makel are, where they reside, and I adopt his testimony as my own. I know that he has correctly stated the name of each one, who they are, and where they reside, and I adopt his testimony as my own in that respect. Father left no personal property of any kind. What he has was of very small value and not sufficient in amount to pay his debts and the costs of administration.

TO GENERAL INTERROGATORY, "Nothing more".

Signature of witness waived.

Whereupon there being no other witness to examine and no further time being required for of the taking/testimony the said Examiner hereby certifies that the foregoing are the true and original depositions of the witnesses in this case, as the same were taken down in stenographic notes and subsequently transcribed by Ruth L. Shafer, the Examiner's duly sworn Clerk, and read over to the witnesses, and the said Examiner returns the same, enclosed, to your Honorable Court.

DECREE

Robert Makel " No. 11862 Equity
 vs. " In the Circuit Court for Frederick County Jacob Makel, et al " Sitting as a Court of Equity
 " May Term, 19

The above cause standing ready for a hearing, and being submitted, the Bill, answer, Exhibits, and Testimony and all other proceedings were by the Court read and considered. It is thereupon, this 16th day of August, in the year nineteen hundred and Twenty-nine by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, as a Court of Equity, and by the authority of said Court, adjudged, ordered and decreed, that the land and premises mentioned in these proceedings be sold, and that George R. Dennis, Jr., Esq. of Frederick County, be and he hereby appointed Trustee to make the said sales, and that the course and manner of his proceedings shall be as follows: He shall first file in the Clerk's office of this Court, a BOND to the State of Maryland, executed by him with a surety, or sureties, to be approved by the Court, or the Clerk, thereof, if with corporate surety, or in penalty of Sixteen Hundred Dollars if with individual surety in the penalty of One Thousand Dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the trust reposed in him by this decree, or which may be reposed in him by any future order, or decree in the premises he shall then proceed to make sale of the said Real Estate, having first given at least three weeks previous notice, inserted in some newspaper printed in Frederick County and such other notice as he may think proper of the time, place, manner and terms of sale; which terms shall be as follows: One half of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof by the Court, the residue in six months the purchaser or purchasers giving his, her, or their notes, with approved security and bearing interest from
