

that they will pay the mortgage debt herein mentioned and the interest thereon.

And the said mortgagors further covenant and agree with the said The Frederick-Town Savings Institution, that they will keep, during the continuance of this Mortgage, the buildings erected on the said mortgaged premises, insured for a sum of not less than Twenty-five Hundred Dollars in some safe and reliable Fire Insurance Company, paying the premiums and assessments thereon as they fall due and payable, and that they will assign the policy of insurance or cause the same to be made payable to the said The Frederick-Town Savings Institution for its benefit in case of loss or damage by fire; and the said mortgagors further in like manner covenant and agree, that should they fail in this particular, and the said The Frederick-Town Savings Institution pay the premiums and assessments necessary to keep said policy of insurance in force, the same so paid, with interest thereon, shall be a lien on the said mortgaged property as though included in the first instance in the mortgage itself.
