Q. Did Martha Biehl leave a Last Will and Testament?

A. We called her Mattie, but her name was Martha Lydia Biehl. No, she did not leave a will.

Q. Did she own any real estate at the time of her death?

A. Yes, she owned a property at New Market.

Q. Are you acquainted with the property at New Market?

A. Yes, I often visited Mattie, and know the property.

Q. Could you estimate what it was worth?

A. No, I couldn't.

Q. She also owned her household furniture there. Has that been sold?

A. Yes, it has.

To the General Interrogatory: Nothing further.

Annie I. Webster
Deponent

Leslie N. Coblentz, a witness of lawful age, produced on behalf of the Plaintiff, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

Q. State your name, age and address.

A. Leslie N. Coblentz; forty-eight years of age; 29 North Court Street, Frederick, Maryland.

Q. You are the Administrator of Martha Biehl?

A. Yes, I qualified as Administrator in the Orphans Court for Frederick County on the 23rd day of March, 1943.

Q. What progress have you made in the administration of the personal estate of Mrs. Biehl?

A. I have had inventories made of personal property, and have converted into cash all the estate coming into my hands, and on the 29th day of November, 1942, stated my administration account in the Orphans Court for Frederick County. I have here a copy of the administration account showing the estate overpaid to the extent of $291.83. (First and Final Administration Account of Leslie N. Coblentz, Administrator, offered in evidence.)

Q. State whether or not Mrs. Martha Biehl left a Will at the time of her death.
