My Commission Expires May 7, 1945.

We, Benjamin B. Rosenstock, William M. Storm and Walter E. Sinn, Receivers appointed by your Honorable Court in No. 15,115 Equity, by Richard E. Zimmerman, our attorney, believing that no injury to the receivership estate will result, hereby recommend to your Honorable Court that Russell E. Provard and Mary E. Provard, his wife, be substituted as purchasers of the property mentioned and described in the foregoing petition, and that said Receivers may be authorized and directed to convey to said substituted purchasers the property mentioned and described in these proceedings as purchased by the said Ira Fuhrman, the original purchaser therefor, upon compliance by the said substituted purchasers with all the obligations and conditions assumed at the time of said sale by said original purchaser.

Richard E. Zimmerman

Attorney for Receivers

The foregoing petition and affidavit, and the recommendation of the Receivers having been by the Court read and considered, and the Court being satisfied that the substitution of purchasers therein suggested may be made without injury to the estate, it is thereupon, this 10th day of August, in the year 1944, by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity, and by the authority thereof, ordered that Russell E. Provard and Mary E. Provard, his wife, be and they are hereby substituted as purchasers of the property mentioned and described in these proceedings, in the place and stead of Ira Fuhrman, the original purchaser therefor.

And it is further ordered that upon compliance with the terms of sale as set out in said proceedings by the said Russell E. Provard and Mary E. Provard, his wife, the substituted purchasers herein, the said Benjamin B. Rosenstock, William M. Storm and Walter E. Sinn, Receivers, be and they are hereby authorized to convey, transfer and deliver unto the said Russell E. Provard and Mary E. Provard, his wife, all the real and personal property, good will, trade marks, and all other assets of Charles F. Rothenhoefer, deceased, and his estate, hereinbefore reported as sold to the said Ira Fuhrman, the original purchaser therefor, upon compliance with terms of sale as set forth in order authorizing said sale.
