

she shall not be then living, but shall have died leaving any child, children or descendants then living, I give and bequeath said One thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) to such child, children, or descendants, per stirpes and not per capita. I being my intention that the total sum which my said granddaughter, Jean McCardell, shall receive will be two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), all of it payable out of the one-seventh share of my residuary estate, one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) thereof payable at the time of my death, and the second one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) thereof payable at the termination of the trust established for the benefit of her father, Wilfred S. McCardell; each of said sums to be subject to be same conditions and limitations as contained in my said codicil.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and fixed my seal this first day of February, in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-nine.

ADRIAN C. MCCARDELL (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the testator, as and for the fourth codicil to his last will and testament, in our presence, who, in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

ELEANOR V. EADER

PARSONS NEWMAN

I, Adrian C. McCardell, do hereby make, ordain, publish and this as and for a fifth codicil to my last will and testament, bearing date on the fifttenth day of February, Nineteen Hundred and twenty-two, hereby ratifying and confirming my last will and testament and the from codicils thereto, except insofar as the same may be changed or altered by this codicil.

Whereas, since the execution of my said last will and testament and the four codicils thereto, my son Ernest W. McCardell, has departed this life intestate and without issue, leaving him surviving a widow, Helen L. McCardell, and

Whereas, I have in numerous times in the past favored my said son in many ways, lending and giving him various sums of money, and

Whereas, by the provisions of the second codicil of my said last will and testament, I did give and bequeath to my said son, together with my other children, the privilege of dividing my household and kitchen furniture and effects, books and pictures and also one-seventh of the rest and residue of my estate, as in the said codicil is more fully set forth, and

Whereas, by reason of the death of my said son, Ernest W. McCardell I desire to change the provisions with reference to the gifts and bequests to him.

Now, therefore, I do revoke the said gifts and bequests of the privilege of dividing my household and kitchen furniture and effects, books and pictures, and the gift and bequest of one-seventh of the rest and residue of my estate to my said son, Ernest W. McCardell, and in lieu thereof, I give and bequeath to Helen L. McCardell, widow of my said son, Ernest W. McCardell, the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) absolutely; and my executors heretofore named shall not collect from the said Helen L. McCardell, of from the estate of my said son, Ernest W. McCardell, or from any other source, the indebtedness which my said son Ernest W. McCardell owed to me at the time of his death.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this nineteenth day of January, in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-two.

A. C. MCCARDELL (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the testator, as and for the fifth codicil to his last will and testament, in our presence, who in his presence, at his request, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

KATIE SEEGER

LINCOLN D. ENGLE-
BRECHT

Court