

and with intent to delay, baffle, hinder and defeat said sale conveyed his real estate for an inadequate consideration, and your petitioners are informed and so charge that said sale was made for the express purpose of baffling and defeating said sale.

Wherefore petitioners pray that your Honorable Court will pass a final order commanding said Caleb L. Wachter to comply forthwith with the terms of his said purchase. And for such further and other relief as they may be entitled to. And as in duty &c.

Charles C. Waters,

Charles P. Lipp

Trustees

Filed November 16, 1898