

Q But in 1940 your husband was entitled to one-half of the corn, wasn't he?

A He was entitled to it.

Q When did he get that?

A I don't know whether we got any corn the year before.

Q Isn't that the corn was delivered in 1941?

A Yes, of course that was in 1941. It wasn't this past summer. That is growing.

Q That is the corn was delivered in 1941?

A Well, the 1940 crop, but we didn't get anything from the 1939 crop. That is the reason Daddy said the farm would be rented or something, because he couldn't stand to keep the place up and get nothing off of it.

Q It was already rented?

A Well it was rented for 50-50, but he didn't get it.

Q It was already rented? A. Well, he was living on it.

✓ Q Mrs. Stull, did you go along with Mr. Stull the first part of April to sign the deed? A. Yes.

Q And that was the occasion when you learned about the judgment against Mr. Grayson Stull on his part of this farm?

A Yes.

Q Against his interest in it?

A Yes.

---

Filed September 2, 1942