

Mr. Rice also left a granddaughter, Doris Lorraine Rice, who is the daughter of Grayson F. Rice, a deceased son of Jeremiah D. Rice. She is about eight years old and lives with her grandmother, Mrs. Lorenza Miller, near Myersville, Md.

Q Mr. Wachter, who were appointed Administrators of Mr. Rice's estate?

A Irving Rice and myself.

Q And you have qualified? A. Yes.

Q What personal estate, if any, of Mr. Rice did you find?

A About the only thing we found was a used automobile, and the landlord's share of a growing corn crop.

Q Have you filed any inventory of this yet?

A No, sir.

Q Was there any cash? A. Not as I know of, no, sir.

Q Did Mr. Rice leave personal property sufficient to pay his debts and funeral expenses?

A No, sir.

Q Do you have any idea of the value of these places?

A The farm I would say about $3500.

Q The other place?

A The home place I guess if that would bring $1600 or $1800 that would be top price.

Q The Myersville property?

A I doubt if that would bring over $400 to $600.

Q Now the mountain lot - do you know how many acres are in that mountain lot?

A About seven acres. I guess if that would bring $8 or $10 an acre that would be top price.

CROSS EXAMINATION WAIVED.

To the Gen. Int.

Nothing further.

Walter F. Wachter

~~(Signature waived by agreement of Counsel).~~