

Q They sold, then, to the Water Company a small parcel of land on which this water tank is erected, is that right?

A That's right.

Q Do you know whether or not either Mary I. White or Ellen M. White were married?

A As far as I know they were not married.

Q They were maiden ladies?

A Yes, sir.

Q What did they do at their home?

A They operated an inn and boarding house.

Q During the time that you knew them did they stay there all the year around?

A Until the last few years, yes.

Q Then during the last few years would they close the house in the winter and live somewhere else?

A Yes.

Q Is there anything else about the property that you know about it you would like to state?

A I don't think there is anything else.

Q Ellen M. White died a little more than a year ago?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether she died intestate or did she leave a will?

A Died intestate.

Q And her personal property has been administered upon, has it?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know who administered on that?

A H. Walton White and Isaac White.

Q Are they two of the nephews?

A Two nephews.

Q You know H. Walton White?
