

gage, because they were co-signers on the mortgage with her.

WILLIAM K. WOLFE, a witness produced in behalf of the Petitioner, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Bennett:

Q What is your full name? A. William K. Wolfe.

Q You live where? A. 227 West Seventh Street.

Q You are a brother of Mrs. Virgie M. Null?

A Right.

Q Where does she live at this time?

A She lives at my house.

Q And how long has she been there?

A She's been there now over six months. She came there the latter part of March permanent.

Q And who brought her there?

A Her daughter Norma from Baltimore.

Q What is her condition, Mr. Wolfe?

A Her condition is bad.

Q Explain it to the Court.

A Well, she don't know anyone. She can't wait on herself. She eats with her hands, and just as Ralph said, she would remind you of a child a year old.

Q Does she know you?

A No, she couldn't tell my name. She knows it's somebody she's been around, but personally I'll say she don't know anyone.

Q Your mother is there with her? A. Yes.

Q How old is your mother? A. 82 years old.

Q Does she know your mother?

A I don't think she does.

Q Can she dress herself? A. No.

Q Can she take care of her own needs?
