

son: I don't know what it would cost, the way things are; I couldn't tell.

Q Do you and your sister have any money ^{in the estate} to repair them?

A I would say hardly not.

Q Do you think it would be to the best interest and advantage of your sister's estate that it be sold?

A I do.

Q Are you willing to sell your share at the same time your sister's share is sold?

A I am, sir.
