

- A. I have lived in Libertytown all my life with the exception of about four years.
- Q. How old are you Mr. Albaugh?
- A. Sixty-three.
- Q. You are in the Undertaking business in Libertytown, Maryland?
- A. Yes Sir.
- Q. How long have you known the property known as the James H. Roberts property?
- A. I have known it ever since school age.
- Q. During the time that you have known the property, has there been any change in the fence line?
- A. No, none to my knowledge.
- Q. Was there any other occupancy of the property?
- A. No. Not during his life time.
- Q. Did you ever hear him claim the property as his own?
- A. Yes. I often heard him say the property was his. I tried to buy the property in the fall of 1920.
- Q. You say you tried to buy the property in the fall of 1920?
- A. Yes, but it was priced too high at that time.
- Q. Has Mr. Roberts always lived on this property?
- A. To my recollection, he has always lived there. That has been over a period of fifty years.
- Q. Who farmed the property?
- A. He farmed it himself.
- Q. Did anyone ever occupy any part of the property?
- A. No, no one else ever occupied any part of it or exercised any dominion of it.
