

- A. All my life. All of us children were born there. We all lived there until I got married and left home. Father and Mother both lived there until they died.
- Q. Did you ever hear of any mortgage being on the property?
- A. No Sir.
- Q. Did you ever hear of any interest being paid on any mortgage?
- A. No. My Father said everything was clear. He told us to do with the property what we wanted to. If any of us wanted to stay on the property, we could or if we wanted to sell, we could do that and divide up the money.
- Q. Do you know who lived on the property before your Father?
- A. Yes Sir. My Grandfather.
- Q. Do you know what your Grandfather did with the property when he died? Did he leave it with any other sons? Did your Father buy out any interests?
- A. Only the lots.
- Q. Who from?
- A. My Uncle, Albert G. Roberts.
- Q. Did your Father's brother ever live on the property?
- A. Not that I know of.
- Q. Did anyone else ever make any claim to the property?
- A. No Sir. Not that I know of.
- Q. Was there ever any dispute as to who the property belonged to?
- A. No Sir.
