

his only heirs at law, the above named daughters, Mary Brane and Maggie Harris, and that said daughters are now the joint owners of said real estate.

4. That said real estate can not be divided without loss or injury to the parties interested therein, and your complainant is advised that she is entitled to have said real estate sold and the proceeds divided between said joint owners.

5. That your complainant is a resident of Frederick City, in Frederick County, Maryland, and that the defendants, Maggie A. Harris and George E. Harris, when last heard from were residing at Seat Pleasant, in Prince George's County, Maryland, but are now believed to be non-residents of the State of Maryland.

Wherefore your complainant prays for the following relief:

(1) That a decree may be passed for the sale of said real estate and the proceeds divided amongst the parties according to their respective interests.

(2) That a trustee or trustees may be appointed by the Court to make said sale and distribution.

(3) That your complainant may have such other and further relief as may be requisite.

And may it please the Court to grant unto your complainant the writ of subloena, directed to said defendants, Maggie A. Harris and George E. Harris, her husband, residing at Seat Pleasant, in Prince George's County, Maryland; commanding them to appear in this Court on some certain day to be named therein ^{and} to abide by and perform such decree as may be passed in said cause.

And as in duty bound etc.,

M. De Laune
Solicitor for Complainant.
