IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR FREDERICK COUNTY,

IN EQUITY.

MARY BRANE
vs.
MAGGIE A. HARRIS, et al.,

No. 14,508 Equity.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OFSAID COURT:

The petition of Mary Brane, the complainant in the above entitled cause, respectfully represents:

1. That she filed her bill of complaint in the above entitled cause for the sale of the real estate of the late Ellen R. Brane and designated Maggie A. Harris and husband, as parties defendant in said cause.

2. That since filing said cause your petitioner has learned that said Maggie A. Harris departed this life some time ago intestate and left surviving her as her only heirs at law, her surviving husband, George E. Harris, who departed this life on or about March 13, 1938, leaving as his only heir at law, a son, George E. E. Harris, upon whom the sub-poena intended for his father, was served. The said Maggie A. Harris also leaves two children, the said George E. E. Harris, whose wife's name is Caroline O. Harris, residing at Seat Pleasant in Prince George County, Maryland, and Margaret, Royer whose husband's name is Conrad Hoyer, residents of Frederick City, Maryland.
