

Q The furnishings in the home are the average furnishings, I guess, in a home?

A Yes, there is nothing particular in the house.

Q Does he have any money in the bank?

A In the Fredericktown Savings Institution, advised through Mr. Myers that there was as of the 6th of February of this year, $3,714.26.

Q In the bank?

A At that time, yes.

Q Now, Mr. Koefoed, who lives in the home of Mr. Miller?

A There alone, that is so far as family relations are concerned? As far as his family, yes, sir, no one.

Q And they have a woman there taking care of him?

A Yes, a practical nurse, Wilhelmina Baker, up to this morning, and we made temporary arrangements for Mrs. George Hoke to carry on for a little while.

Q Mrs. Baker had to leave, I believe, on account of some other appointments?

A Yes, sir.

(THE COURT) Who are you suggesting as Committee?

MR. DELAUTER: They suggested Mr. Hicks and Mrs. Koefoed.

Filed February 14, 1956