

A That's right.

Q Do you know whether he was married?

A He was married and his wife is dead.

Q Did they have any children?

A No.

Q Can you tell us anything about Thomas L. Jones?

A Yes, he was a lawyer, a Judge in Washington, D. C., and he is dead.

Q What relationship was he to Lelia Townes?

A Brother of Lelia.

Q Did he have any children?

A Two: Georgia and Clarice Michaels.

Q Can you further identify them?

A Georgia Johnson - she is in Washington - and Clarice Michaels in Pennsylvania teaching - those are the two children. And I am ashamed to say I don't know whether the mother is living or not. I haven't heard from them for a long time.

Q Mrs. Jones, will you tell us what you know about Charles Jones?

A Yes, he was my aunt's brother, and he died years ago in an accident, and his wife is dead, and they had one child and she is dead. That whole family is wiped out too.

Q From the information you have given us today, Mrs. Jones, to the best of your knowledge, information and belief, that is all the information available in reference to the heirs-at-law and next of kin of Lelia Callily Jones Townes?

A Yes, that is all I can give you and all that I know.
