

JENNIE E. JONES, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Brown?

Q What is your address?

A Somerville, New Jersey; Duke's Park, Route 1.

Q You have heard your sister testify, Mrs. Jones; is there anything further that you can add to what she has said that will help us to determine who the heirs of Lelia Townes are?

A No, there is nothing I can add.

---

WILLIAM ALBERT JONES, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Brown:

Q Mr. Jones, will you state your name and address?

A William Albert Jones, 52 Fairview Avenue, Somerville, New Jersey.

Q You are a brother to Mrs. Anna May Jones?

A. That's right.

Q You have heard Mrs. Jones testify?

A Yes.

Q Is there anything further you can add to what Mrs. Jones has said that will aid the Trustees in determining who the unknown heirs are?

A Well, she named some I don't know nothing about, so I couldn't add anything.

BY MR. FOUT:

Q Was Rosa Jones a sister of Lelia Townes?

A Yes, there was only two girls: Lelia and Rosa.

Q And Rosa is deceased?

A Yes.

Q And no children?

A No children. She had been married. Her husband's name was Temple, but I never knew his first name.
