

A No, I don't know anything about her financial affairs.

Q Do you know anything she has in the way of cash?

A No, I do not.

Q Nothing has come up since she has been in the hospital?

A The only thing come up, when she went down the second time there wasn't money enough in the change drawer to put a lady roomer up. I didn't want that room open for everybody to walk in there and I paid her room rent across the street at the Maryland Hotel.

Q There was no money available?

A No, sir.

Q And the only property she has to your knowledge is what you have listed in the petition?

A Yes.

EMMERT R. BOWLUS, a witness for the Petitioners, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Bennett:

Q Your name is Emmert R. Bowlus?

A That's right.

Q And you are an auctioneer and realtor in Frederick City?

A Yes.

Q Are you familiar with the price of real estate and articles of personal property in Frederick County?

A Yes.

Q Have you appraised the property of this estate?

A I have.

Q Will you give the list of the property and the appraisal figures, please?

A There are three pieces of real estate: the first, located
