TESTIMONY TAKEN BEFORE THE COURT, HON. ARTHUR D. WILLARD, June 14, 1941.

Present: Judge Hammond Urner, for the Plaintiffs;
T. West Claggett, Jr., Esq., for Union Bridge Banking and Trust Company.

(The 15 Exhibits filed with the Bill of Complaint are offered and filed in evidence.)

MARGARET T. ENGLAR, one of the plaintiffs, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Judge Urner:

Q Will you state your name and residence?

A Margaret T. Englar, 1303 John Street, Baltimore.

Q I believe you spend part of your time in Frederick County?

A I usually stayed at the home during July and August.

Q You are a granddaughter of Jonas Urner? A. Yes, sir.

Q The testator mentioned in the bill of complaint in this case. When did your grandfather, Jonas Urner, die?

A I think it was in 1895, but I am not sure. I know my father died in 1894, and I think my grandfather died the next spring.

Q Yes, his will was probated that spring.

A I think it was April.

Q What was your father's name?

A John David Englar.
