TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

The Petition of Amos A. Holter and Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., Receivers in the above-entitled cause, by Charles McC. Mathias, their solicitor, respectfully represents unto your Honors:

1. That since the appointment of Amos A. Holter and Charles McC. Mathias, Jr. as Receivers by your Honorable Court they have diligently attempted to find a purchaser for the assets, real and personal, of the said body corporate and to that end they have personally solicited and interviewed persons interested in the automobile business and they have retained the services of several reputable real estate agents who are active in the sale of real estate and business properties in Frederick County, Maryland.

2. That in spite of these efforts they have been unable to obtain any satisfactory offer for either the real estate or the personal property constituting the physical assets of the said Monocacy Motors, Inc.

3. That they are of the opinion that the best interests of the creditors of Monocacy Motors, Inc. and of all other persons interested therein will not be served by further delaying the sale and liquidation of the said real and personal assets of the said corporation.

4. That they now believe and are advised that the best interests of the said creditors of Monocacy Motors, Inc. and all others having an interest therein will be best served by conducting a public sale of all of the physical assets of the said Monocacy Motors, Inc.

WHEREFORE, your Petitioners pray that they may be authorized to sell all of the property of Monocacy Motors, Inc., real and
