

Q Who is taking care of your mother?

A We, the children.

Q And is the farm getting better or worse?

A I would say worse.

Q And what would be the value of it - the fair market value?

A About $10,000, I would imagine.

Q And does your mother have any other funds or income?

A No.

(The Court)

Q Do you feel it would be to her best interests to sell the farm?

A I think so.

Q And convert it into cash and invest it?

A Yes. The children, some of them, don't have too much, and it is hardship on them.

Q And she has no other funds?

A No.

ASBURY HOOVER, a witness for the Petitioners, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. DeLauter:

Q Where do you live?

A I live at Wolfsville.

Q Do you know the Blickenstaff farm?

A Yes.

Q How long have you known it?

A Ever since I knew anything.

Q Do you know about how many acres in it?

A They tell me 80 acres, is all I know.

Q What is the condition of the farm - the buildings?

A Well, it is in fairly good condition - not too good.

Q Do you know whether it is a productive farm or not?
