

Harvey R. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Effie F. Spurrier, Carrie Bell, widow, Ola Hoke, whose husband's name is LeRoy Hoke, Nora Creager, whose husband's name is Richard Creager, and Lee Toms, widow, children of a brother, Jacob H. L. Spurrier, who predeceased the said Taylor A. Spurrier, (c) Ethel Spurrier Dinterman, whose husband's name is Alvey Dinterman and Floy Diller Spurrier Filler, a widow, children of a brother, Charles F. A. Spurrier, who predeceased the said Taylor A. Spurrier. All of the above named heirs being adults and residents of Frederick County, Maryland. (d) Coral Spurrier Kling, whose husband's name is Roscoe M. Kling, both adults residing in Frederick County, Maryland, and Charles C. Spurrier, whose wife's name (if any) is _____ Spurrier, adults, whose residence is unknown, but when last heard from, lived in Murdo, South Dakota, Samuel E. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Poella Spurrier, adults, and reside in Denver, Colorado, Royal E. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Ruth D. Spurrier, adults, and reside in Fort Wayne, Indiana, Walter E. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Ella S. Spurrier, adults, and reside in Hartland, Minnesota, Alfred R. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Ethel Spurrier, adults, and reside in Coesse, Indiana, Emmet C. Spurrier, an adult, unmarried, residing in Coesse, Indiana, all of whom are the children of a brother, William M. L. Spurrier, who predeceased the said Taylor A. Spurrier.

That the real estate described in Exhibit No. 1, of which the said Taylor A. Spurrier died seized and possessed, is not susceptible of partition or division without material loss and injury to all the parties to this cause who have an interest therein, because it consists of a dwelling house erected on a small lot of land, and it would be to the best interest of all the parties that said real estate be sold under a decree of the Court and the proceeds divided amongst the parties according to their respective interests therein.