

man taking the rent money, and we don't know nothing about it. We don't know what they are paying and we would like to know something.

Q Had you talked to your brothers and sisters?

A I talked to Rachel. She was going to get them together. We never heard no more. They never come and told us or talked to us about it.

Q Did you ever talk to Edgar about it?

A I never talked to him about it.

Q Did any of your brothers talk to him?

A I think Jake and Clarence talked to him at the butchering, or something.

Q Then you filed the bill for partition, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Was any force exercised upon you to file the bill for partition?

A No, sir.

Q And following the filing of the bill for partition did you come to my office for the purpose of getting it settled notwithstanding the filing of the bill for partition? Did you?

A Yes, we did.

Q Who accompanied you?

A My two brothers, Jake and Clarence.

Q What time did you get to my office?

A I got there around 7:30.

Q How long did you sit there and wait?

A We sat there around two hours.

Q Did any of your other brothers and sisters show up?

A No.

Q Did they call up while you were there?

A They never called up to me.

Q Are you interested in the disposition of this property
