

had this petition he wanted me to sign for the sale.

Q Who? Glass did?

A Yes. I went in and read this paper. I read it myself. I went to my oldest brother. I said, "Are you going to give 10% to sell this farm?"

Q Who did you say that to?

A Clarence Valentine. I said, "Did you read it?" "No," he said, "I never seen it, I didn't know they had any paper." He said, "Tell the boy don't send any papers to Glass, as he isn't representing us on the farm."

Q How did this paper get to Glass?

MR. TEBBS: I went to Mr. Glass to talk to him about selling this property amicably. Mr. Glass said he didn't believe they could agree.

THE COURT: He wasn't representing anybody?

MR. TEBBS: He was representing everybody but the three whose names appear on this bill for partition.

THE COURT: If anybody is in the room Mr. Glass represents, just stand up. Is there anybody?

(No one stands)

THE COURT: There is nobody here.

MR. TEBBS: Mr. Glass told me he represented all but the three whom I represented, and he did represent Mrs. Zimmerman on a previous occasion. Mr. Glass did tell me he represented - he told you on the witness stand he represented them in the will case this morning.

THE WITNESS: That's different. He didn't have a thing to do with the farm. I went to Mr. Glass because he told me he represented my
