

CLARENCE VALENTINE, one of the Complainants, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By the Court:

Q All right, Mr. Valentine, you have heard the testimony of the gentleman just on the stand?

A Yes.

Q What is your version of this situation? Was there any attempt? When did your father die?

A He died November 19, 1959.

Q After his death did he have an estate? did he leave an estate that was in Carroll County?

A It is in Frederick County. This farm is in Frederick County.

Q Did he have any other estate?

A Yes.

Q Did he have a will?

A Yes, they tell me he did. I read it in the paper.

THE COURT: Did you settle the estate, Mr. Brown?
Who was the lawyer that settled the estate?

MR. TEBBS: Mr. Glass was handling the estate for the Executor of the will. He said that on the witness stand.

THE COURT: Mr. Glass was handling the settlement of the estate?

MR. TEBBS: I have a photostat of the will.

THE COURT: That's all right. I just wanted to find out - which one in the family contacted Mr. Glass about settling this estate?

MR. EDGAR VALENTINE: Me and my sister (Agnes) settled the estate of my mother's farm in my daddy's will. We went to Mr. Glass.

THE COURT: The two of you went to Mr. Glass?

EDGAR VALENTINE: Yes.
