

Q Ruthie, you have heard your parents and your sister testify; and have you any objections to a trust arrangement such as has been described here?

A No.

Q And you realize that the property described and now belonging to you and your sister, that under this arrangement it would not vest in you absolutely until you reached the age of twenty-five years?

A Yes.

Q Then you have no objection to that?

A No.

Q I will ask you another question: were any funds belonging to you used in the purchase and improvement of the property?

A No, sir.
