State of Maryland, Frederick County, to-wit:

On the 25th day of February 1924, came Mary G. Myers (now Loy)

one of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing last Will and Testament of CHARLES ARUNAH ROGERS late of Frederick County, deceased, and made oath in due form of law that she did see CHARLES ARUNAH ROGERS the Testator therein named, sign and seal this will: that she heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his last Will and Testament: that at the time of his so doing he was, to the best of her apprehension, of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and capable of executing a valid deed or contract, and that she respectively subscribed their names as Witnesses to said Will in the presence of and at the request of the Testator and that she did also see each the other subscribing Witness sign his name as Witness to said Will, at the request of the Testator in his presence, and all in the presence of each other; and at the same time also came William J. Grove, a credible witness, and made oath in due form of law that he was present and saw the said CHARLES ARUNAH ROGERS, sign this Will in the presence of the subscribing witnesses Henry P. Fahrney, M.D., and Mary G. Myers (now Loy); that he saw said respective witnesses sign their names as witnesses; that the said witness Henry P. Fahrney is now deceased and that the name of the said Henry P. Fahrney subscribed as a Witness is his true and genuine signature.
