

Q From where?

A From my home. He met me there. From Mt. Pleasant.

Q Mt. Pleasant to Frederick? A. Yes.

Q How many trips?

A Three or four.

Q The trips from Mt. Pleasant, how much did you charge for that?

A I didn't charge nothing. He was supposed to give me a dollar to bring him in and a dollar to take him out. I couldn't charge him nothing.

Q $2.00 then? A. Yes.

Q How many trips did you make? Did you make two trips?

A Yes, and then some.

Q Then he owes $2.00 for that?

Q How much for the trips? $4.00?

A Yes, three, four or five.

Q Which is it? $3 or $4? A. Something like that.

Q Is it $3.00? A. Yes. I'll say $2.00 anyhow.

Q What about the store account?

A Well he owes me for a little bit of bread and apple butter, and I think half a dozen or dozen bottles of beer, I don't know which.

Q What does that amount to? A. I don't know.

Q Is this your bill here? A. Yes.

Q What you filed in the Orphans' Court?

A Yes. To the best of my knowledge that is it here.

Q How much is that? A. I ain't got my glasses.

Q $5.10? A. It might be something like that.

Q You can't read that paper?

A No, I ain't got my glasses. Thirty-some dollars.

Q The bill says $33.10. Is that correct? A. I guess it is.

Q You say you can't read it? A. No, I ain't got my glasses. I couldn't tell you.

(The Court) What do you have there; an itemized bill?

(Mr. Storm) Yes, bill approved by the Orphans' Court and filed as an exhibit in this case. ~~xxxxx~~

(The Witness) Mr. James can tell you the same thing. I got
