

3. That in addition to the trust referred to in the preceeding paragraph, the infant is also beneficiary of another trust created by the Last Will and Testament of the infant's father, George W. Sponseller, said trust being administered by the same trustee, and under the terms thereof the infant will receive one-half (1/2) of the income from said trust until he attains the age of thirty-five (35) years, but because the estate of George W. Sponseller has not yet been settled the assets which will be in trust are unknown to your Petitioner at this time.

4. That the infant is possessed of a certain unencumbered fee simple farm in Frederick County, Maryland, consisting of approximately two hundred fifty-two (252) acres and valued at approximately Forty-five Thousand Dollars ($45,000.00).

5. That the infant herein came on for trial on a charge of larceny before the Honorable John Grayson Turnbull on October 20, 1961 in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, and upon the recommendation of Doctor Roger S. Waterman, the Court placed the infant on probation on condition that he pay a fine of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) and take psychiatric treatments until such time as the psychiatrist certified they should be discontinued.

6. That the infant has had little formal education but has graduated from a welding school and your Petitioner believes that it would be for the best interest of said infant that he be actively engaged in some occupation during the period
