

Q What did your duties consist of while you were guardian?

A Judge, my duties consisted of a lot of things other than the legal requirements of being guardian. I had custody of Susan.

Q Did she live with you?

A Yes. I looked out for her welfare.

Q Who supported her? Did you pay her money or handle any moneys that belonged to her while she was under your care?

A Yes.

Q She doesn't seem to know much about this proceeding.

A I think, Judge, she is more frightened. She understands, I am fully aware - she is just a little frightened - that one particular question you asked her.

Q What was that?

A About what the house was sold for - the amount.

JUDGE SHURE: Well, let me ask her again: do you know what the house is being sold for?

A (Susan) No, I don't.

Q Is there any reason why you are frightened this morning?

A Just nervous, I guess.

Q How far did you go in school?

A I graduated - no, I went to the Eleventh Grade.

Q Frederick High School?

A Yes.

Q All right.

EXAMINATION OF MR. BOYER continued:

By Mr. Storm:

Q Mr. Boyer, what income did you have of Susan to care for?

A It consisted of monthly income.

Q Social Security?

A Social Security $60.00 a month derived from that, and the
