Leslie N. Coblentz and H. Noel Haller, Trustees of Howard W. Bevard and Elizabeth A. Bevard, his wife,	)	No. 10536 Equity.
	)	In the Circuit Court
	)	for
ON PETITION.	)	Frederick County.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:-

The Answer of Leslie N. Coblentz and H. Noel Haller, Trustees, to the Petition of Charles B. Wood, in the above entitled matter, respectfully shows unto your Honors:-

1. That they admit the allegations of the first, second and third paragraphs of the said Petition, and responding to the fourth paragraph, your Petitioners feel that it is not entirely equitable for the said Petitioner, Charles B. Wood, to receive his money before a general distribution of the funds in the hands of your Trustees is made.

2. That in the sale of the assets in the hands of your Trustees, a farm was sold upon terms of settlement which provide for full payment of the purchase price on April 1, 1923, at which time your Trustees expect to close the estate now in their hands.

3. That your Trustees have sold the articles levied upon by the Petitioner, Charles B. Wood, and have received for the same the full amount of said judgment plus costs, which money your Trustees now have in their hands, subject to the order of your Honorable Court. And your Trustees haver incurred certain costs in connection with said sale, a portion of which should be deducted from said claim

4. That should your Honorable Court pass an order authorizing your Trustees to pay the amount prayed less costs, your Trustees suggest that a bond be filed indemnifying your Trustees from any loss, in connection with the final settlement of the estate.

And as in duty bound, etc.

Leslie N. Coblentz
H. Noel Haller
Trustees.
