

Q Have you been on this property lately?

A Many a time.

Q Have you been on it lately, Mrs. Proctor?

A No, sir, not lately.

Q Do you know its condition?

A I know its condition. I know it is pretty bad.

Q Do you know whether any offers were ever made to purchase this property, Mrs. Proctor?

A Well, I don't know exactly.

Q In your opinion would it be to the best advantage of all the parties concerned to have this property sold and the proceeds divided among the parties in interest?

A Yes, sir, I think so, because it is just running one or two to death and the others ain't doing anything.

CROSS EXAM. BY MR. BENNETT:

Q In your opinion can this property be divided in kind among all the heirs?

A I think so.

Q I mean can you give one a piece of ground and another a piece of ground?

A No, you can't do that.

Q Then you don't think it could be divided in kind?

A I don't know.

REDIRECT EXAM. BY MR. STEWART BROWN:

Q The question, Mrs. Proctor, is this: We have a group - a rather large group of heirs of William Joseph Proctor?

A Yes, sir.

Q Who are the parties in this case.

A Oh yes.

Q Now the question is, can somebody go down there and mark off a little piece for Agnes Posey and mark off a piece for Bernice Williams and Joan Proctor and all of the other heirs?
