

LAWRENCE MILLBERRY, a witness for the Complainants, being first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

By Mr. Stewart Brown:

Q Will you state your name, your age and your residence, please?

A Lawrence Edward Millberry; age 67; I live at Adamstown now.

Q Did you know William Joseph Proctor?

A Yes, sir.

Q Was William Joseph Proctor your grandfather?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did he bequeath you a sum of money under his will?

A Yes.

Q Now, Mr. Millberry, are you familiar with the 50 acres of land that we have been discussing here this morning?

A Yes.

Q Do you know its location?

A Yes.

Q When were you on this land last?

A It 's been about a year now.

Q Can you describe its condition? Tell us what you know about the land.

A Well, the land, as far as I know, it's been over a year since I have been in there. I don't know exactly its condition now.

Q Is it clear land or is it grown up in bushes?

A No, it is grewed up.

Q Do you know whether your grandfather in his lifetime ever marked off and located any of the various tracts of land that were given to your aunts and uncles?

A Not exactly.

Q Are you familiar with the terms of your grandfather's will? You are not sure whether your grandfather ever located the various tracts of land for your aunts and uncles, is that right?

A No, I don't, because I was very small.
