

and situated on the south side of said branch." How would it be possible to locate that?

A Can I say this?

Q You are testifying. Yes: sure.

A When I went up there last year, that was my first time being there since I was a kid, but I was familiar with certain parts of the land; although I was a child I could still remember a little bit of it, and there is a section of the Linwood property, I was told that his section was - he showed me where the house and all were.

Q You say you were told where Linwood's section was?

A Yes.

Q Who told you that, Mr. Johnson?

A Mrs. Williams.

Q If Mrs. Williams told you that, did she point out to you where James Franklin Proctor's tract was?

A She pointed out the house they lived in.

Q She pointed out the house where they were living, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q But is that on this 50 acres we are speaking about?

A That is what I asked a while ago. These two houses are right together there, and I couldn't say whether they were in the 58 acres or not, but I believe they are.

Q Do you know whether Agnes Posey's ten acres was ever located and marked off by your great-grandfather?

A I don't know that.

Q Or the tract devised to Mathias Proctor?

A No.

Q Or the tract devised to your grandmother Jereline Johnson?

A No, I don't know that.

Q Do you have any idea as to the value of this property, Mr. Johnson?
