

Q You don 't know?

A No.

Q That's all.

CROSS EXAMINATION WAIVED BY MR. BENNETT.

RE-CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. STEWART BROWN:

Q I believe you stated that Mrs. Williams pointed the property out belonging to Linwood. Do you know of your own knowledge whether the property Mrs. Williams pointed out to you was a part of this property in question or was it a property that may have adjoined this 50-acre tract?

A I don't know. I just know it was pointed out where he lived.

Q Thank you.

TERESSA SUMMERS, one of the Defendants, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Edwin C. Brown, Sr.:

Q State your full name, please?

A Teresa Summers.

Q Where do you live?

A 4116 First Street, Annandale, Virginia; 46 years old.

Q Now are you an heir of William Joseph Proctor?

A Great-granddaughter.

Q And are you familiar with the will in question?

A Yes, sir, I have read the will.

Q And in your opinion do you think the 50 acres in question can be divided in kind among the heirs?

A Well, I had an idea that it could be divided, but I wasn't sure.

Q On what do you base the idea that it could be divided?

A Well, according to the will I had the understanding that
