

Q How old were you when your grandfather died - William Joseph Proctor?

A I don't know. I don't know how old I was, because I don't know what year he died.

Q Did you ever know your great-grandfather?

A I had seen him when I was a little girl.

Q Mrs. Summers, do you know whether during his lifetime your great-grandfather marked off and located a 10-acre tract of land in Frederick County which he specifically devised to your grandmother, Jereline Johnson?

A I wouldn't know that, because I don't know anything about any of this until about a few years ago.

Q Do you know whether any of these five 10-acre tracts were ever laid off or marked off and located during your great-grandfather's lifetime?

A I wouldn't know.

Q Do you know whether any of the other heirs have ever sought to purchase this land?

A Not that I know of.

Q And pay off the other parties in interest?

A Not that I know of.

BY MR. E. C. BROWN:

Q Mrs. Summers, can you tell us whether or not this 50 acres involved - or 58 acres - we have been talking about 50 acres--

MR. STEWART BROWN: The tax bill calls for 58 $\frac{1}{4}$  acres.

I don't know whether that includes some of the tracts that were divided ahead of the five ten-acre tracts.

MR. E. C. BROWN: What I want to do is get the record straight whether we are talking about 50 acres or 58 acres.

MR. STEWART BROWN: Here is a plat which was apparently
