

Q Are you familiar with the will of William Joseph Proctor?
Have you read it?

A I have seen a first sketch that just says something about -
I can't remember everything it said, but just it was something new to me, because I didn't know there was any property I was in - volved in, or my mother.

Q Do you know whether the respective devises were ever marked or laid off by William Joseph Proctor in his lifetime?

A All that was said was ten acres set off for the grandchildren or each grandchild, and was ten acres supposed to be set aside for us. About the 40 or 50 acres, I don't know nothing about. All I know, the will says something about ten acres set aside to grandchildren.

Q In your opinion, can the ten acres be set aside for the grandchildren, including you, be located?

A Well, as far as the ten acres being located, there is a lot of ground you can take ten acres out of.

Q I mean the specific ten acres as specified in the will?

A No, I wouldn't know even where to start to look for what part of the land.

CRGS EXAM. BY MR. STEWART BROWN:

Q Mr. Jefferson, your relationship is through Jereline
Johnson, isn't it?

A That's right, my grandmother.

Q You have testified, sir, that you were born in Washington and reared in New York?

A Yes. Q. And devoted all your time to New York? A. Yes.

Q And you have been in the contracting business?

A Yes.

Q Now you don't know of any contractor that would go in there today and operate a quarry in there within a week's time or two weeks' time or even a year's time to extract the blue stone?

A Well, if the property was all mine and I didn't have a
