

Miriam N. Rice, a Complainant in the within cause, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

Q. Will you state your full name, please?

A. Miriam N. Rice.

Q. And what is your address?

A. Middletown, Md., Route 2.

Q. And what is your age?

A. Fifty.

Q. And your occupation?

A. Housekeeper.

Q. You are the widow of Clarence C. Rice, one of the original Plaintiffs to these proceedings?

A. Yes.

Q. When did your husband die?

A. December 30, 1963.

Q. Did he die testate or intestate?

A. He died intestate.

Q. Did your husband leave any children surviving?

A. Yes, five.

Q. Will you state their names, ages and addresses, please?

A. Mary Elaine Adkins, aged twenty-six, Middletown, Md., Route 2; Faye Elizabeth Greenwalt, aged twenty-three, Middletown, Md.; Patricia Lou Lewis, aged twenty, Myersville, Maryland, Connie Leona Kinna, aged eighteen, Middletown, Md.; Hilda May Rice, aged sixteen, Middletown, Md.

Q. Mrs. Rice, you are acquainted with the property known as the Rice farm, heretofore described in these proceedings?

A. Yes.

Q. In your opinion, would it be possible to divide this property, without loss or injury, among the several parties entitled thereto?

A. No.